Halloween Takes Over Historic Black Hawk

This October, Black Hawk's historic Gregory Street transforms into Black Hawk Halloween Street & Fall Festival – a month-long mountain Halloween destination filled with larger-than-life decorations, fall activities, family-friendly events, photo opportunities, local businesses, and a little Black Hawk history.

Located just a short drive from Denver, Halloween Street gives visitors a reason to experience a different side of Black Hawk all October long.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

BLACK HAWK HALLOWEEN STREET October 1 – November 8 | Daily

Explore Gregory Street featuring:

- 69 City-owned Halloween sculptures
- 8 designated selfie stations
- Custom Halloween photo stand-in
- Seasonal lighting and décor
- Historic streets, storefronts, and photo opportunities throughout the HARD District

THE GREAT BLACK HAWK PUMPKIN GIVEAWAY October 1 – 31

Visitors can explore participating HARD District businesses with a Pumpkin Passport, collect stamps from each business, and redeem a completed passport for a free pumpkin and decorating kit while supplies last.

Guests are also encouraged to decorate their pumpkin and share it on social media using #BlackHawkPumpkin for a chance to win a Halloween Street swag bag.

HALLOWEEN STREET SOCIAL SELFIE QUEST

October 1–31

Find the 8 Halloween Street selfie stations, snap photos, and share them on social with:
